

Terms and Conditions – Loyalty Cards for Bollywood Brasserie

Signature or the use of this Loyalty Card constitutes acceptance of the Bollywood Brasserie Loyalty Card Terms and Conditions.

The Loyalty Card is not a cheque guarantee, credit or debit card. This card is for use in the Bollywood Brasserie Bradford, Tong Lane ONLY. Applicable to the named person only. Identification may be required to verify the holder/ use of this card. This card remains the property of the Restaurant and is given to recipients in good faith. This card cannot be used in conjunction with any other offer- including but not limited to; special offer menus, free drinks, drinks offers, fixed priced menus and 2 for 1 deals. The Loyalty Card is non-transferable and has no cash value. Entitles the named person 20% off in the Restaurant. The registered recipient of this discount card must be dining when used. Tables in the restaurant are subject to availability, ownership of this card does not guarantee a table. Entitles the named person to a maximum of six guests on one table when recipient is settling the full bill each time the Loyalty Card is used. Retrospective discounts cannot be made, once the bill is finalised- failure to present this discount card before the bill being presented, will result in no discount being offered. Not valid for split bills. This card cannot be used for any wedding, meeting, event and conference booking. The Restaurant have the right to refuse service and remove the card if the card is being abused. The Restaurant reserve the right to cancel this offer, at any time, with no prior to notice. The card is valid for the period of time registered with the hotel management (details upon request). The expiry date is two years from issue date, no longer than 30.09.2021.